PROGRAM OF THE WEEK:

CAPSTONE AND HOLOCAUST STUDIES IN POLAND

The University of Northern Iowa students spent a day exploring the quaint mountain village in Zakopane, Poland. During WWII, many underground personnel, who interfered with the advance of Germany, assembled in Zakopane to discuss further strategies.

AREA SITES IN POLAND

Holocaust— The knowledge of this tragic era, is brought to life through the visualization of places and memorials , so you can fully comprehend the horror felt by the Jewish population.
Auschwitz-Birkenau— One of many death camps created by the Nazis during WWII. The camp has now been turned into a memorial to remember all the lives that were lost.
Schindler' Factory— With his manipulative skills, Oskar Schindler housed and gave work to over a thousand Jews, in the end saving their lives.

Full Scholarship Opportunity in China!

This Summer, for eight weeks, have the opportunity to study intensive Chinese in either Shanghai or Beijing. It's a great opportunity for those with intermediate or advanced Chinese speaking to learn the language better and experience authentic Chinese culture.

- Live with a roommate or a family to get an up close and personal study experience
- No official classes just an individual tutor to help you improve in areas you struggle with.
- With this scholarship you receive airfare, meals, activities, and trips paid for.
- Dead Line— December 18, 2009

REMINDERS

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

11/13/09 — A mandatory Study Abroad Orientation for all Spring 2010 study abroad participants. The Know Before you Go consists of guest speakers and paperwork finalization. You will receive important information about financial aid, health, and much more.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

11/16/09-11/20/09 — International Education Week is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchanges worldwide. Please go to www.uni.edu/internationalprograms and click on International Education Week under Announcements for schedule of events on the UNI campus. If you are interested in offering an event, please contact Nadia at nadia.korobova@uni.edu

STUDY ABROAD PREP COURSE

Do you want to study abroad, but don't know where to go? This class enables you to learn about multiple countries, which are available for study abroad opportunities. Taught by Yana Cornish, the class helps you with all aspects of studying abroad from paperwork to general information needed by the student. By taking this course, you are not required to attend the mandatory Know Before You Go meeting; however the class is not a requirement to study abroad.
