PROGRAM OF THE WEEK:

Capstone in Costa Rica

Basílica de Nuestra Señora de Los Ángeles (Our Lady Queen of Angeles Church)— Every year, this cathedral is the sight of a huge pilgrimage during the month of August.

FOUNDATION OF THE CAPSTONE

Purpose— Costa Rica is not only a beautiful country, but also one of the most energy efficient in the world. Students will explore how different ways of technology and tourism impact the environment we live in.

Activities— This course emphasizes hands on experience so students will get to explore national reserves like Corcovado and Tortuguero. They will also see how Costa Ricans make their banana, melon, pineapple, and palm oil production's both efficient and better for the environment. Students will also get the chance to dip their toes in the Caribbean Sea, climb and explore mountains, and experience the Pacific Coast.

NOTHING TO DO ON VALENTINES DAY?

Here are some romantic movies from around the world!

DIRTY DANCING HAVANA NIGHTS (USA)— This film takes a Latin spin on the classic film Dirty Dancing. It is full of forbidden love, political turmoil, and of course

ISHQIYA (India)— A story about two thieves who are on the run, they try to take refuge in an old friend's home, but instead find his beautiful widow. They both fall in love with her and compete to win her heart. However, she manages to trick both of them with her schemes.

AMÈLIE (France)— This is a very cute and romantic film that takes place in France. Amèlie is a young woman who tries to help her friends find love, but in the end may find love for herself.

SUKITOMO (Japan)— A story about a talented boxer training for the competition of his life. He has his two favorite people by his side supporting him, his sister and his best friend. However, he finds out a secret about the two of them that might change his life Forever.

AMOR REAL (Mexico)— This is a 19th century period film where a wealthy aristocrat, Matilde Peñalver, falls in love with a penniless soldier named Adolfo Solís against the wishes of her mother.

Elvin ELVIRA MADIGAN (Sweden)— A tragic love story about famous Swedish tight rope walker, Elvira Madigan. She meets and has an affair with a Swedish army officer who is married and has two children. What follows is a stream of hardships for the couple that ends tragically.
