PROGRAM OF THE WEEK:

CULTURE & INTENSIVE SPANISH PROGRAM (CISP)

University of Tarapaca— UNI students pictured enjoyed the surf contest on the beach, located on the west side of Arica, which brought surfers from all over South America. (Listed from L to R) Stephanie Dunwoody, Laura Todd, Leanna Heim, & Brooke Eischeid. Student spent eight weeks by the Chilean town of Arica, living with local families and studying Spanish.

AREA SITES IN ARICA, CHILE

Pacific Ocean— You could walk the beach, relax to the sounds, and swim in the ocean, which is conveniently located right next to the city.

Machu Picchu—You could take a short trip to Machu Picchu Peru, an ancient city hidden by the Andes Mountains. See the ruins that identify the rich culture unspoken by the natives.

Lauca National Park—Located in Peru, it has mountains with snow tops year round, llamas, alpacas, and vicunas.

REMINDERS KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

11/13/09 — A mandatory Study Abroad Orientation for all Spring 2010 study abroad participants. The Know Before you Go consist of guest speakers and paperwork finalization. You will receive important information about financial aid, health, and much more.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

11/16/09-11/20/09 — International Education Week is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchanges worldwide. Please visit http://www.uni.edu/internationalprograms/documents/IEWSchedule_000.pdf for schedule of events on the UNI campus. If you are interested in offering an event, please contact Nadia at nadia.korobova@uni.edu

STUDY ABROAD PREP COURSE

Do you want to study abroad, but don't know where to go? This class enables you to learn about multiple countries, which are available for study abroad opportunities. Taught by Yana Cornish, the class helps you with all aspects of studying abroad from paperwork to general information needed by the student. By taking this course, you are not required to attend the mandatory Know Before You Go meeting; however the class is not a requirement to study abroad.
